SPEAKERS TO FOCUS ON UAS INDUSTRY AT ANNUAL NETWORKING SEMINAR

The fifth annual Business Networking Seminar, held in connection with the Norsk Høstfest, is scheduled for September 26 – and will feature a line-up of top notch Unmanned Aircraft Systems (UAS) speakers. The speakers include industry experts from Robot Aviation, e-Smart, Xcel Energy, and the Chancellor of the North Dakota University System. The seminar will be at the Grand Hotel in Minot, as the Minot Area Development Corporation and Minot State University will host the event from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. This year's seminar will take a closer look at the UAS industry and its applications in North Dakota and will highlight the connection between Minot, ND and Scandinavian countries. For more information, please contact the MADC office at 701-852-1075 or jhauge@minotusa.com.

TWO YEARS IN A ROW FOR MADC AT ANNUAL UAS SUMMIT & EXPO

The Minot Area Development Corporation joined more than 300 other attendees in late August at the 11th annual UAS Summit and Expo in Grand Forks. This gave the MADC a unique opportunity to network with top companies within the unmanned aircraft systems industry. Many of the summit speakers commented on how fast the industry is growing and how well positioned North Dakota is to lead the way. MADC attended the summit for the second year in a row, meeting new prospects and continuing to foster current relationships. As a community leader, MADC feels that this cutting-edge technology will bring great opportunities to all of North Dakota.

VERENDRYE ELECTRIC PRESENTS $6,000 GRANT TO BERTHOLD DAYCARE

The Kids Academy Daycare in Berthold was recently presented with a $6,000 check by Verendrye Electric Cooperative. Verendrye contributed $2,000 and that was matched by CoBank, Verendrye's cooperative lender, and Basin Electric Power Cooperative, Verendrye's generation cooperative. The money will be used to help make repairs to the building and a shed used to store supplies. The day care can serve as many as 30 kids.

TOWN & COUNTRY CREDIT UNION STAFF EARN CCUFC

Four Town & Country Credit Union employees have successfully passed the required exams and earned the designation of Certified Credit Union Financial Counselor (CCUFC). The newly designated CCUFC's include: Lisa Lysne, Financial Services Officer; Claudie Selzler, Financial Services Officer; Laura Bryant, Member Services Supervisor; and Karna Taft, VP Business Development.

The training and coursework completed by Lisa, Claudie, Laura and Karna has provided them with the knowledge to confidently guide members through financial situations, ultimately helping members reach their financial goals. "Our mission is to build trusted financial relationships through personalized service. Trained financial counselors, that can provide members with financial expertise, is key to fulfilling that mission," commented Darrell Olson, President and CEO. The credit union will now have seven employees who have earned the CCUFC designation. "Having employees who are Certified Credit Union Financial Counselors reaffirms our commitment to helping members gain control of their financial future." Olson added.

The Certified Credit Union Financial Counselor designation is provided by the Credit Union National Association (CUNA) Financial Counseling Certification Program (FiCEP).

Town & Country Credit Union is a member-owned, full service financial institution with 10 locations across North Dakota in Kenmare, Fargo, Minot, Stanley, Ryder and West Fargo. Membership is open to anyone living within 75 miles of Minot or 50 miles of Kenmare or Fargo.
